THE CHURCH AND NON-BELIEVERS

Our Lord's last words to his disciples were to go out to all nations. The Church, from its very origins, was intended for all: it is Catholic, or universal.

But this universal mission has raised many issues for the Church. How do we proclaim Christ's truth to a non-believing world? How far should we accommodate the cultures and traditions of those we are evangelizing? How closely should we ally ourselves to secular authorities?

These are the questions that the great missionaries of the Church have answered, not merely in theory but in practice. This living tradition will provide a strong and faithful foundation for the New Evangelization the Church has encouraged.

Participants should have completed the First Session (Introductory Survey), either this year or previously.
