EVANGELIZING THE MODERN WORLD

The Second Vatican Council described the Church's responsibility to proclaim Christ's truth like this: "In language intelligible to every generation, she should be able to answer the ever recurring questions which men ask about the meaning of this present life and of the life to come."

So much has changed so quickly in our world. How do we respond? Church teaching in so many important areas, her artistic expressions of the faith, her means of communication and use of the media, and even the sort of saints she produces have all played a part in stepping up to the challenge. The Church continues to prove that she transcends time and cultures.

It is preferred (and helpful for you) that participants have completed the First Session (Introductory Survey), either this year or in a previous year.

Lectures are at 8:30, 11:00, and 1:15 EST, with Mass at 10 a.m. Lunch is provided for those attending in person.
